Navajo Music for Classroom Enrichment

Dollie L. Yazzie

Compact disk with 37 Songs - $15

Book with lesson plans, words and written music - $30

Book and CD Set - $40

Compiled, Edited, and Sung by Dollie L. Yazzie

Here are thirty-seven songs that teachers can use in their classrooms for enrichment purposes. The songs are both humorous and informational. They include tongue twisters, occupational activities, historical references, rhymes, those with a moral and those for just plain enjoyment. All refer to, and enumerate, as well as relate to, Navajo life, thus giving children familiarity and pride in their heritage. The lessons in the plans are merely suggestions; each teacher will find many areas where these songs can be used.

The 1970 recording began as a group effort that resulted in two LP 33 1/3 rpm records. Dollie Yazzie was joined in some songs by Lynda A. Dick. Several songs added traditional singers Shirley Begay and Laura Wallace. Sound effects on the original recording were done by: Martin Hoffman, Harrison Henry,

Laura Wallace, Dollie Yazzie, Shirley B., Andy T., Galena-D., Joe Y. and Lynda Dick. The 2003 recording is designed and directed by Dollie, joined by Linda Dick Teller, with technical assistance by Dr. Roy E. Howard.
